REFERENCE:-

The Board submits to Government, copies of the References cited. Even though the pendency of cases in the Court of the Additional First Class Magistrate (Prohibition), came down to 180 on 31.12.1952 as against 509 on 15.7.1952, the total number of cases entertained by the Court during the year 1952, viz. 1897, justifies its further retention. The Board supports the proposal of the District Magistrate and requests that the Government may be pleased to sanction the continuance of the Additional First Class Magistrate (Prohibition) and his staff ~~xxxxxx~~ for a further period of 6 months from 1.4.1953.
